

Bobby Sands!

Hero generally refers to a person who can risk his life for a right reason.

My hero is Bobby Sands. He was a young volunteer for the Irish freedom.

Bobby was a member of i.r.a. (Irish Republican Army), a military organization that fought against British control in Ireland.

Later he was arrested with a groundless accuse and imprisoned in the famous H-Block, English prisons of maximum security, for Irish prisoners.

At that time a person could be imprisoned only because of his catholic religion .In the H-Block the people were considered like animals, the police men had the order of torturing and humbling the prisoners.

After a period Bobby Sands decided to start a strike that didn't include the cleaning of his body.

Later he understood that the strike didn't give any result so he started another one, he decided not to wear dresses any more.

The last strike that he decided to do was very strong: The hunger strike, also 24 people followed him in the strike.

After some days he died.

His death was very helpful to begin the fight for Irish freedom.

Thank you Bobby for having taught to the world the meaning of personal sacrifice.
